

Stacy Scaldo

Associate Professor of Law

Professor Scaldo joined Florida Coastal in 2004. She has served on various committees leading in areas such as professionalism, faculty appointments, curriculum, teaching, vision, and is very committed to serving students and helping them succeed in law school and beyond. She serves on the Board of Directors at Jacksonville's Women's Help Center, on the Board at San Juan Del Rio Catholic School, and in the Catholic Lawyer's Guild in nearby Saint Augustine. She was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2001.

Education

Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center, J.D., 2001, Summa Cum Laude

Pennsylvania State University, B.S. in Journalism, 1997

Teaching

Torts

Remedies

Professional Responsibility

Judicial Writing

Interviewing and Counseling

Public Speaking for Lawyers

Legal Editing

Lawyering Process

Pretrial Litigation Drafting

Advanced Legal Writing: Dispute Resolution Topics

Professional Activities

Florida Bar

Catholic Lawyers Guild, Diocese of Saint Augustine, Florida

Publications – Law Review Articles

- Stacy A. Scaldo, In the Name of Dignity: Misguided Justice and Disregarded Harm in Modern Abortion Socio-Legal Theory (forthcoming Spring 2021).
- Stacy A. Scaldo, Loose Lips Required ... and Appreciated: In Support of Title IX's Mandatory Reporting Requirements for Professors in Undergraduate and Graduate Education, 18 U.N.H. L. REV. 225 (2020).
- Stacy A. Scaldo, Seditious Acts of Faith: God, Government, Conscience and Boiling Frogs, __REG. U. L. REV. __ (2016).
- Stacy A. Scaldo, Deadly Dicta: Roe's "Unwanted Motherhood," Gonzales's "Women's Regret" and the Shifting Narrative of Abortion Jurisprudence, 6 DREXEL L. REV. 87 (2014).
- Stacy A. Scaldo, Life, Death, and the God Complex: The Effectiveness of Incorporating Religion-Based Arguments into the Pro-Choice Perspective on Abortion, 39 N. KY. L. REV. 421 (2012).
- Stacy A. Scaldo, The Born-Alive Infants Protection Act: Baby Steps Toward the Recognition of Life After Birth, 26 NOVA L. REV. 485 (2002).